PROLOGUE

Florida Southern College's Campus is a two-part structure with each part harmoniously co-existent upon the other. It is a temple dedicated to the propagation of knowledge and a community devoted to the culmination of the social person. We dedicate the 1961 Interlachen to this co-existence, by which a great college thrives.

View of the Panhellenic Building on Lake Hollingsworth.

Without us, the beautiful buildings on Campus would be hollow shells. With us, they are proving grounds for our social and educational endeavors; in spacious halls of the Panhellenic Building; at the circular desks of the E. T. Roux library, in this our monument we work to prove ourselves not only acceptable, but worthy of the term STUDENTS.

Over the years as our campus has grown so has our gait, from a country saunter to a head down rush to keep pace with the surge in standards of studies. So while appreciating, our rapid course permits only quick glimpses at our monument.

But while our quick step and familiarization with the campus hinders us from looking up, we know it's there. And occasionally within the quiet Garden of Meditation we observe, perhaps not the structures, but certainly the atmosphere of education they herald.

CAMPUS

And our monument is also a warm place, providing for those carefree moments with spacious swimming pool and sun deck. We set aside our studies here to pick them up again refreshed, invigorated.

Within the confines of our Chapel we are also invigorated, in a much greater sense. It is here we face toward God, feeling the serenity of his nearness. It is here that our course is plotted with divine assistance. It is here that we ARE.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

LINDA MAGGIO
Sigma Alpha Epsilon Sweetheart

One hundred and five years ago, saw the founding of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the University of Alabama. . . . Eleven years ago, November 11th SAE came to Florida Southern. Since then many brothers have proudly worn the pin of SAE, symbolizing the world's largest social fraternity in membership. Throughout its years on campus, SAE has proven itself a leader in sports, activities, scholarship, and most important, brotherhood. This year of 1960-61 ranks high as being one of the best for SAE. In future years SAE will continue to grow here at Florida Southern. Continue to grow in spirit, glory and fame. This year has given us a wonderful sweetheart, Linda Maggio, and an understanding housemother, Mrs. Smith. This year was most prosperous to each and every brother and pledge, because each of them has come to realize the true meaning of fraternal brotherhood.

GAIL HERZFELD

Sweetheart of Tau Epsilon Phi

Tau Rho Chapter of Tau Epsilon Phi has enjoyed the fruits of another banner year at Florida Southern . . . from our beautiful new fraternity house over-looking scenic Lake Hollingsworth, we have watched a handful of men, bound together by their belief in the ideals of friendship, chivalry, service; their genuine belief in God and Brotherhood among all men, pass proudly through our Portals of graduation and into the future of our fraternity. As Brothers we recall with pride "The Samuel J. Lefrak National Chapter Achievement Award" . . . the dynamic leadership and inspiration of our Chancellor, Brent Malever . . . Dick Friedman, Greek Hall of Fame and President of the Inter-Fraternity Council . . . Mr. Robert Lee, our Chapter Advisor, our lovely Sweetheart, Miss Gail Herzfeld, who faithfully carried out the traditions of that position . . . and most of all the undying maternal efforts of our housemother, Mrs. Helen Bruggner. Southerneers

MARGIE JHONSON
Sweetheart of Southerneers

The Southerneers was founded in 1956 as a men's social fraternity. The Southerneers have no national affiliation and is the only independent fraternity on campus. The organization offers Christian brotherhood among its members and strives to raise its members to the fullest of their capacities and to elevate their cultural standards. This was a very successful year under the leadership of Steve Frazier, the support of our Sweetheart Margie Jhonson, and the comical antics of our social chairman Mac Speights. We will never forget our "Get out the vote" lapel pins on election day as our community project and the fun and work on the Christmas display and the Founders' Week Float. We will always be proud of our activities in Intramurals and of our over-all 2.7 scholastic average.
